I am in receipt of the presentence investigation report and addendum in this case. Except for the defendant's objection and motion for variance, there are no objections or motions for departure or variance.

IT IS ORDERED that:

(1) The undersigned will consult and follow the Guidelines to the extent permitted and required by United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220(2005) and subsequent cases. *See, e.g., Gall v. Prior to sentencing, the officer shall provide copies of that material to counsel of record and to me. My judicial assistant shall call this instruction to the attention of the probation officer.

(3) The defendant's motion for variance (filing 59 part 2) will be resolved at sentencing.

(4) Except to the extent (if at all) that I have sustained an objection or granted a motion or reserved an issue for later resolution in the preceding paragraph, the parties are herewith notified that my tentative findings are that the presentence report is correct in all respects.

(5) If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, said party shall, as soon as possible, but in any event at least five (5) business days before sentencing, file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and how long such a hearing would take.

(6) Absent submission of the information required by the preceding paragraph of this order, my tentative findings may become final and the presentence

(7) Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.
